

SAFE HARBOR ESTATE LAW'S

Top 10 Movies About Estate Planning

Believe it or not, there are several movies out in the world that have estate planning themes. Whether it is a fight for an inheritance, guardianship, or distribution of a will/trust, check out our list (in no particular order) of estate planning movies we think you will enjoy!

1. Knives Out, 2019 (PG-13)

This recent film follows the death of a wealthy crime novelist, Harlan Thrombey, and his large inheritance left behind. A detective hired by an anonymous party seeks to uncover the truth surrounding Thrombey's death, interviewing suspicious family members along the way.

2. Disney's Aristocrats, 1970 (G)

In this beloved animated film, Edgar, a sneaky butler, kidnaps a family of cats when he finds out that his mistress' recent Will leaves her entire fortune to them.

3. The Ultimate Gift, 2006 (PG)

This film based on a novel by Jim Stovall follows a deceased billionaire's grandson who inherits a list of tasks to complete to receive, "the ultimate gift" from his grandfather.

4. Little Big League, 1994 (PG)

This sports film is about a young 12-year-old who becomes an Heir to the entire Minnesota Twins baseball team.

5. The Descendants, 2011 (R)

George Clooney stars as Matt King, a husband who struggles with what to do with his wife's large land trust after a tragic accident leaves her in a coma.

7. Rain Man, 1988 (R)

Car dealer Charlie Babbitt (Tom Cruise) learns that his estranged father died and left his $3 million fortune to his autistic older brother's mental institution.

8. Despicable Me, 2010 (PG)

Supervillain Gru decides to hatch an evil plan to steal the moon. Plans change when he fosters 3 orphan girls, and they hatch a plan of their own to have him adopt them.

9. Brewster's Millions, 1985 (PG)

A former minor-league pitcher learns that his great-uncle has left him $300 million with a catch: he must spend $30 million of it in 30 days with a complicated set of rules.

10. Mr. Poppers Penguins, 2011 (PG)

Jim Carrey stars as Mr. Popper, a successful real estate developer whose life changes when he receives one final gift from his late father – a penguin.